How You Can Help

Cash Contributions

Donors may give gifts of cash by cheque, credit/debit, or money order.
Revenue Canada allows charitable donation tax receipts for such donations.

Gifts-in-Kind

Gifts-in-kind are non-cash donations and may take the form of:

1. Tangible property such as: equipment, vehicles, supplies, food, books, computer, software, artwork, etc.
2. Securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds or real estate)

When giving a gift-in-kind to a charity, the donor transfers ownership of the gift to the charity, as is, for the charity's use (for current operations, projects, or sale for the use of proceeds).

Bequests and Wills

A legal will is a guarantee that an individual's estate will be divided according to his or her wishes. Designating a portion of assets to preferred charitable organizations is increasingly popular and important.

In Memoriam

If you would like to honour the memory of a friend, family member, or colleague who has passed away, a memorial gift to the Royal City Education foundation offers an opportunity to do so. For example, a memorial scholarship or bursary, named in honour of the individual is a wonderful way to create a lasting legacy

Other Opportunities

Securities and Shares: Residual Bequests, Specific Bequests; Contingent Bequests; Insurance Policies; are all examples of other gift giving opportunities.

How To Donate

Donate by Credit Card, Cheque or Money Order. This could be in the form of:

1. A one-time donation
